HEALTH FEES

Full-time students in the Accelerated Bachelor’s Program participate in the comprehensive Student Health Program offered by University Health Service (UHS). The health plan includes the mandatory health fee and health insurance. For general information, see Health Insurance for Full-Time Students.⁴

Health Fees	Per Semester (Fall/Spring)	Per Year
Mandatory health fee	TBA 2023-2024 rate: $390	TBA 2023-2024 rate: $780
Health insurance	TBA 2023-2024 rate: $1806	TBA 2023-2024 rate: $3612
Part-time Student Health Record Processing fee (one-time fee charged upon matriculation)		$50

²Note: Undergraduate students taking graduate level courses (400 or above) will be charged the graduate student rate. This includes RN to BS to MS students taking graduate level courses (400 or above) while still in their bachelor’s portion of the degree.

³As part of the iROC Initiative, APNN and RN to BS students must have an iPad that meets UR Nursing qualifications. The School of Nursing will make the iPad and associated electronic course material available to you through the UR Tech Store and the costs will be included in your mobile device fee. However, you have the right to opt-out of this opportunity and obtain an iPad elsewhere. See iPad Opt-Out Policy for necessary iPad qualifications and how to opt-out. The fee includes the required book bundle.

⁴Proposed rates, require approval by the State. The health insurance rate will not be approved by New York State until late April or May time frame. Until then, the health insurance rate is provisional/estimated.
